18 Plaintiff Atkins Sheep Ranch, Inc., brought this action for trade secret misappropriation
19 and related claims against defendants Charles Scharmann, Joseph Ring, Chris Lam, and Blue
20 River Seafood, Inc. (“Pucci”) based on allegations that former Atkins employees Scharmann
21 and Ring misappropriated Atkins trade secrets pertaining to business operations and 22 relationships and solicited one of Atkins’s primary customers, Grocery Outlet, for the benefit of 23 their new employer Pucci, a competing business headed by Lam (see Dkt. No. 1 ¶¶ 6–37).

24

Atkins has filed an ex parte motion for (1) a temporary restraining order, (2) an order to 25 show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue, and (3) limited expedited discovery
26 (Dkt. No. 13). Atkins CEO Jonathan Packman submitted a supporting declaration (Dkt. No. 15)
27 with appended documentary evidence of the complaint’s allegations, including the Atkins 28

1 employee handbook and emails to and from defendants, but omitting the alleged trade secret
2 documents “pending court order sealing [said] documents” (e.g., Dkt. No. 15-2 at 5).

3 Having considered the complaint, motion, and supporting documentation, the Court is 4 unwilling to grant the requested relief on an ex parte basis but sets a hearing on the motion for 5 SEPTEMBER 5 AT 10:00 A.M. Atkins shall file the alleged trade secret documents with an 6 administrative motion to file under seal in full compliance with our Civil Local Rules by 7 AUGUST 28 AT NOON. Atkins shall also serve the summons, complaint, motion, supporting 8 documentation, and this order on defendants by TOMORROW AT 5:00 P.M. Defendants may file
9 a written response by AUGUST 30 AT NOON.
